Introduction to Advanced Scrum – A Scrum Master Training Course   [Score: 90]

Course Details

This course is an excellent place to start if you want to be a Scrum master, are adopting Scrum in your workplace, or simply want to be a more agile team. It is built on the best learning objectives of the Scrum Alliance and Scrum.org to provide you with current, market-relevant content. Additionally, once you finish this course, you will be able to increase your knowledge with part two of this series: Mastering Advanced Scrum – A Scrum Master Training Course.

A Scrum master is a Scrum team member responsible for fostering an effective and productive working environment and guiding others in understanding Scrum values, principles, and practices. Scrum masters are people-oriented, have high emotional intelligence, and enjoy assisting team members in growing. The material in this course shows you how to effectively guide your team in using Scrum and will consider why Scrum values are so important. Learn how to improve communication between the product owner, Scrum Team members, customers, stakeholders, and executives.
